

Chinese Embassy Protest Allowed

Peaceful UK Life League protesters against forced abortions and imprisonment without trial in China were allowed to assemble on the pavement outside the Chinese Embassy in Portland Place, London on 24 Sept. 05, - the first time the Metropolitan Police have allowed anyone near. "It took the preparing of papers for a judicial review yesterday for the Met to climb down," co-ordinator Jim Dowson reported.